SUBJECT: Judicial Conduct Board Elects Officers

HARRISBURG, PA – At its February 3, 2025 meeting, the Judicial Conduct Board of Pennsylvania (“Board”) elected its officers for the coming year. The Board unanimously elected Scott B. Cooper, Esquire as Chair, Sudhir Patel, Esquire as Vice Chair, the Honorable Risa Vetri Ferman as Secretary. Commencing July 30, 2025, upon the expiration of Chair Cooper’s four-year term with the Board, Sudhir Patel, Esquire will fill the Chair role, the Honorable Risa Vetri Ferman will move into the Vice Chair role and the Honorable William J. Kissner will move into the Secretary role.

The twelve-member Board is an independent Board within the Judicial Branch of the Commonwealth’s government comprised of twelve Pennsylvania citizens: three judges, three lawyers and six non-lawyer electors. The Governor and the Supreme Court each appoint six of the Board’s members. The Board’s members serve four-year terms, without pay, and no more than one-half of its members may be from the same political party.

Created by constitutional amendment in 1993, the Board reviews, investigates, and, where warranted, prosecutes complaints of judicial misconduct. If the Board, by majority vote, decides that there is probable cause to believe that a judge engaged in misconduct, the Board may file a complaint in the Court of Judicial Discipline where the Board must prove the charges against the judge by clear and convincing evidence. The Court of Judicial Discipline decides if the Board has sustained its burden of proof and also decides the sanction to be imposed upon the judge for any proven misconduct.
