He and his wife, Rosemarie, reside in New Cumberland and have three children and one grandchild.
A MESSAGE FROM CHIEF COUNSEL:

Since March 3, 2002, I have been honored to serve as Chief Counsel to the Judicial Conduct Board of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The past fourteen months have been the most exciting, challenging and satisfying of my thirty-two years as an attorney.

During my first week as Chief Counsel, I informed the staff and members of the Judicial Conduct Board that we would be committed to excellence and would strive for better communication, cooperation and efficiency not only within the Judicial Conduct Board, but with the complainants, the Judiciary, and most importantly, the citizens of Pennsylvania.

Over these past months, we have worked hard to develop a Board that preserves and protects the independence and integrity of the Pennsylvania Judiciary.

Without the dedication of our valued staff and the enthusiastic leadership of our distinguished volunteer Board Members, we would not have the respected and independent Board we have today. Their skill and resolve are the foundation behind the statistics and other information presented in this Annual Report.

Every effort has been made to lead this Board with integrity and professionalism. While the Board’s Chief Counsel has undergone change in the past year, its goal remains the same: to uphold public confidence in the Judiciary through the enforcement of high standards of conduct for judges.

As Chief Counsel of the Board, and on behalf of all staff and members, it is a privilege to serve the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in this important work.

Sincerely,

Joseph A. Massa, Jr.
Chief Counsel
To the Citizens of Pennsylvania:

I am pleased to present you with this report summarizing the work of the Judicial Conduct Board. In the year 2002, the Board disposed of 528 complaints. Of these complaints, 490 were dismissed after preliminary investigation, 24 were dismissed after full investigation, and four were resolved upon the issuance of letters of counsel. Formal charges and prosecutions were initiated in six matters.

The Board has instituted some new procedures in handling its cases. First, where a letter of counsel is issued, the judicial officer is now required to appear before our Chief Counsel to receive and accept the letter. Second, in dismissing cases where there are no grounds for formal discipline, but where there exists “cause for concern,” the Board has begun including cautionary advice as part of the dismissal letter. These letters are confidential and are not made a part of the judicial officer’s record. We believe that these cautionary letters have been constructively received.

We feel that we have made great progress over the past year in expanding communications with the judiciary. However, we would like to improve our communications with the public. For example, as our statistics imply, we continue to receive numerous complaints based upon dissatisfaction with the outcome of litigation rather than upon any credible charge of misconduct. Since every complaint is thoroughly reviewed, complaints which are unfounded or beyond our jurisdiction impose a burden upon our staff and, quite likely, frustration among the public. With those problems in mind, we have directed Chief Counsel to develop a better program of public information which will include the creation of a web site and a thorough revision of our informational brochures.

I am particularly pleased to note the staff additions which occurred in 2002. Our new Chief Counsel, Joseph A. Massa, Jr., took charge on March 1, 2002. A new Assistant Counsel and two well-qualified investigators have since joined us. The Board is confident that these new appointments will increase the efficiency and quality of our work.

In closing, I would like to thank our Board members for their dedicated and uncompensated service. It has been a privilege to serve as their Chairman for the past two years.

John W. Morris

I. Judicial Conduct Board
Mission Statement

The Judicial Conduct Board is the state agency responsible by constitutional mandate for investigating complaints of misconduct against judges of Pennsylvania’s unified judicial system and, where appropriate, filing formal charges against those judges found to have engaged in unethical behavior.

The members and staff of the Judicial Conduct Board take their duties to the citizens and judiciary of Pennsylvania very seriously. The Board is committed to preserving the honor, dignity, independence, and integrity of Pennsylvania’s judiciary. Political affiliation, race, color, age, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, ancestry, religious creed, disability, and the position or status of the complainant or judge, are not considerations in reviewing cases. The Board’s duties to the public require the honesty, intelligence, professionalism and diligence of every Board and staff member.

The Board and its staff investigates every allegation made against a Pennsylvania judge. This procedure is an essential safeguard to the integrity of, and public confidence in, the judicial process. Judges are held to a high standard of ethical conduct as prescribed by the laws of Pennsylvania, including the Code of Judicial Conduct, and the Board and its employees strive to conduct themselves in a similar manner.
II. Overview of the Board

Authority of the Board

The Judicial Conduct Board (formerly the Judicial Inquiry and Review Board) was created by an amendment to the Pennsylvania Constitution adopted on May 18, 1993 and declared in effect by the Governor’s Office on August 11, 1993. It is the independent state agency responsible for investigating allegations of judicial misconduct or disability or impairment.

The Board has jurisdiction over Pennsylvania Supreme Court Justices; Superior and Commonwealth Court Judges, Common Pleas Court Judges, Philadelphia Municipal and Traffic Court Judges, Pittsburgh Magistrate Court Judges and District Justices. The Board has no jurisdiction over federal judges and magistrates, administrative hearing officers for state agencies or private mediators, arbitrators or masters.

The Board’s Unique Role

Under the Pennsylvania State Constitution, the Board is the only agency of state government with the authority to investigate judges for ethical misconduct. Its disciplinary role is unique. The Board’s system has served Pennsylvania well since its inception in 1993. Some judges have been publicly disciplined for judicial misconduct, while others have been confidentially cautioned. A number have resigned while under inquiry. It is, undoubtedly, fair to state that the Pennsylvania Judiciary has become more sensitive to its ethical obligations; consequently, public confidence in the judiciary has improved.

Members of the Board

There are 12 members of the Board:

- Six citizen members who are neither attorneys nor judges;
- Three judges, one from each of the following court levels: appellate, common pleas and district magistrate, and
- Three attorneys who are not judges.

Members meet regularly to conduct Board business and receive no compensation for their service.

One of the critical features of the Board’s system is its structural independence. The 12 board members are appointed to staggered four-year terms by various designating authorities—the Governor and the Pennsylvania Supreme Court—neither of whom controls a majority.

Governing Legislation

The Board is governed by Article V, Section 18 of the Pennsylvania Constitution, Chapter 21, Subchapter A of Title 42 (Judiciary and Judicial Procedure) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes (Appendix I herein). As part of the judiciary and as an independent entity having its own constitutional and statutory provisions regarding confidentiality of papers, records and proceedings, the Board is not governed by the Pennsylvania Public Information Act, the Open Meetings Act or the Pennsylvania Administrative Code.

Defining Judicial Misconduct

Article V, Section 18 of the Pennsylvania Constitution defines judicial misconduct as the “willful or persistent violation of rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, incompetence in performing the duties of the office, willful violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct, or willful or persistent conduct that is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice.” The Code of Judicial Conduct appears herein at Appendix II.

Judicial misconduct could arise from a violation of the Pennsylvania Constitution, the Pennsylvania Penal Code, the Pennsylvania Code of Judicial Conduct, the Rules Governing Standards of Conduct of District Justices, or rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. It could occur through the judge’s failure to cooperate with the Board. Other examples of judicial misconduct include inappropriate or demeaning courtroom conduct, such as yelling, profanity, gender bias or racial slurs. It could be improper ex parte communication with only one of the parties or attorneys in a case, a public comment regarding a pending case, or a failure to recuse or disqualify oneself in a case where the judge has an interest in the outcome. It could involve ruling in a case in which the parties, attorneys, or appointees are related within a prohibited degree of kinship to the judge. Judicial misconduct could occur through a judge’s failure to cooperate with respect to his or her obligations arising from a Board’s inquiry, or failure to abide by any provision of a voluntary agreement to resign in lieu of disciplinary action.

Judicial misconduct could also arise from out-of-court activities, including theft, driving while intoxicated, improper financial or business dealings, and sexual... harassment or official oppression. Such conduct is subject to the same review by the Board.

Sources of Complaints and Allegations
The Board has the duty to consider allegations from any source, including an individual, a news article, or information received in the course of an investigation. Although the Board does accept anonymous complaints, they are much more difficult to fully investigate.

Board Limitations
The Board cannot exercise appellate review of a case or change the decision or ruling of any court, nor can the Board intervene in a pending case or proceeding. For example, if the Board finds a judge’s actions to be misconduct, the Board can only file formal charges and seek appropriate sanctions against the judge, which could include the judge’s removal from the bench. However, even removal would not change the judge’s ruling in the underlying case. Only the appellate process is empowered to change the decision of a court.

Likewise, the Board cannot provide individual legal assistance or advice to a complainant. The Board cannot remove a judge from a case. The Board cannot award damages or provide monetary relief to complainants.

Board Investigations and Actions
Cases are reviewed, analyzed, and investigated by the Board staff. The first step in an investigation involves a preliminary inquiry; which may include interviews with the complainant, attorneys, other witnesses, and review of relevant documents. The full Board then considers the results of the investigation in reviewing the complaint. The Board has several options available when deciding whether to take action on a case. At this stage, the Board is most likely to make one of two choices:

- Dismiss the complaint because it is clear that the allegations do not warrant disciplinary actions against the accused judge; or
- Authorize a full investigation to determine if there is “clear and convincing evidence” of misconduct.

After a full investigation is authorized and conducted, the Board makes one of two choices:

- Dismiss the complaint because there is not “clear and convincing evidence” of judicial misconduct; or
- File formal charges against the accused judge with the Court of Judicial Discipline following a determination that there is “clear and convincing evidence” of judicial misconduct.

The types of actions that could be taken by the Court of Judicial Discipline include dismissal, sanction, suspension, acceptance of a voluntary agreement to resign from judicial office in lieu of disciplinary action, and removal from the bench. A detailed discussion of the Board’s procedures for analyzing complaints and allegations appears at Section II. The Complaint Process in this annual report is also presented in Section II. The number and types of action taken by the Board in fiscal year 2002 are presented in the summary of Board Activity in Section IV.

Board Organization and Staff
The Board has eight staff positions, including the Chief Counsel, two attorneys, and five support staff. All Board staff members are full-time Commonwealth State employees.

The Board’s legal staff, which consists of attorneys, a paralegal and investigators, is responsible for the evaluation and investigation of complaints. The attorneys are primarily responsible for reviewing and evaluating new complaints. The investigators are primarily responsible for conducting in-house and on-site investigations. The paralegal is responsible for performing legal research.

The three attorneys serve as trial counsel during proceedings before the Court of Judicial Discipline and are responsible for preparing cases and presenting the evidence that supports the charges before the Court of Judicial Discipline.

The Chief Counsel heads the staff and reports directly to the Board. The Chief Counsel is also the primary liaison between the Board and the judiciary, the public and the media.

Outreach and Education
In 2002, the Chief Counsel and Board members made numerous presentations at judicial training courses and court-staff conferences, describing the Board and discussing various forms of judicial misconduct.

Board Website
The Board’s website appears at www.judicialconductboardofpa.org. The website provides downloadable complaint forms. The website also offers answers to frequently-asked questions regarding the Board, such as its composition, structure...
Public Information

The availability of information and records maintained by the Board is governed by Article V, Section 18(a)(8) of the Pennsylvania Constitution.

Generally, Board records are confidential. All Board meetings and proceedings are closed to the public to protect complainants from retaliation by accused judges and judges from the embarrassment of complaints that have no merit.

Once formal charges are filed with the Court of Judicial Discipline, the case is no longer confidential and all pleadings and proceedings are open to the public.

Judicial Conduct Board Complaint Process
III. Confidentiality

Board proceedings are strictly confidential, including the fact that there is a complaint or investigation, as provided in Article V, Section 18(a)(8) of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and Rule 17 of the Judicial Conduct Board Rules of Procedure (J.C.B.R.P.)

IV. Summary of Board Activity in 2002 and Statistical Data

Complaints Received and Investigated

In 2002, there were 1,200 judgeships within the Board’s jurisdiction.

New Complaints

2002 CASELOADS

- Cases Pending 01/01/02: 223
- New Complaints Considered: 497
- Cases Concluded in 2002: 528
- Cases Pending 12/31/02: 192

The following graph displays the number of complaints received over the years.

The complaints set forth a wide array of allegations. A substantial percentage alleged legal error not involving misconduct or expressed dissatisfaction with a judge’s discretionary handling of judicial duties.

The Board also received complaints concerning individuals and matters that did not come under the Board jurisdiction: federal judges, former judges, workers’ compensation judges, other government officials and miscellaneous individuals. Board staff responded to each of these complaints and, when appropriate, the Board made referrals.

Complaint Dispositions

The following case disposition statistics are based on cases completed by the Board in 2002, regardless of when the complaints were received. In 2002, the Board disposed of 528 cases. The following graph displays the number of cases disposed of by the Board over the years.

Closed without Action

In 288 of the 307 cases closed in 2002, a sufficient showing of misconduct did not appear after the information necessary to evaluate the complaint was obtained and reviewed. In other words, these files had insufficient facts that, even if true, would constitute judicial misconduct. Investigation showed that the allegations were unfounded or unprovable, or the judge gave an adequate explanation of the situation.

Notice of Full Investigation

In 2002, the Board issued 11 notices of full investigations and two cautionary letters of counsel.

Formal Charges

The Board filed 11 Board Complaints in 2002.

Letters of Counsel

The Board issued two Letters of Counsel in 2002.
Closed with Action

Summary of Complaints Considered in 2002

The 589 requests for investigation received by the Board derived from various sources (litigants, non-litigants, attorneys, etc.), covered the following subject matter, and were lodged against the following types of judges. The totals may not equal 589, as some grievances cover more than one judge or contain more than one type of alleged misconduct.

Samples of Conduct Found to Be Improper

To maintain confidentiality, it has been necessary to eliminate certain details of individual complaints. Because the listing is intended in part to educate judges and the public and to assist the Judiciary in avoiding improper conduct, we think it is better to be vague in these descriptions than to omit them altogether.

- Intemperate courtroom conduct (e.g., yelling, rudeness, inappropriate language)
- Ex parte or other improper communication
- Delay in performing judicial duties (e.g., in administering or deciding case, issuing show cause order in dormant estates, signing final order)
- Abuse of or threat to abuse power (e.g., denied access to records or right to make record, retaliated against person who filed substitution request or cooperated with Judicial Conduct Board, threatened to jail a person without legal authority to do so, abuse of summary contempt)
- Failure to disqualify or disclose facts relevant to appearance of partiality
- Public comments on a pending case or prejudgment
- Inappropriate off-the-bench conduct
- Active participation in criminal plea-bargaining
- Interfering with a party’s right to appeal
- Partisan political activity
- Obstruction of justice
- Misuse of prestige of office
- Charitable or political fund-raising
- Violation of gift rule

Subject Matter of Complaints

- Ex Parte Comm (II) 2%
- Decisional Delay (42) 9%
- Conflict of Interest (I) 2%
- Case Fixing (2) 1%

Categories of Respondent Judges

During 2002, the Board opened 497* complaints against judicial officers. The following chart reflects the breakdown of those complaints by category of judges.

- Superior Court (8) 1%
- Municipal Court (4) 1%
- District Justices (175) 30%
- Courts of Common Pleas (401) 68%
- Traffic Court (1) 0%

* Several files contained complaints against multiple judges; e.g., 02-110 ABC = 3 files.

Dispositional Breakdown

During 2002, the Board disposed of 528 complaints. The following chart reflects the stage at which ultimate disposition occurred.
• Inaccurate or incomplete financial disclosure report
• Actively discouraging entry of not guilty pleas
• Accepting public official’s plea in chambers
• Private use of public resources
• Name used to promote a private business or organization

• Public intoxication
• Physical or mental disability
• Sexual misconduct
• Use of intoxicating beverages or dangerous drugs in such a way as to interfere with the proper performance of judicial duties.

NOFI — Notice of Full Investigation
L/C — Letter of Counsel
ARTICLE V

§1. UNIFIED JUDICIAL SYSTEM

The judicial power of the Commonwealth shall be vested in a unified judicial system consisting of the Supreme Court, the Superior Court, the Commonwealth Court, courts of common pleas, community courts, municipal and traffic courts in the City of Philadelphia, such other courts as may be provided by law and justices of the peace. All courts and justices of the peace and their jurisdiction shall be in this unified judicial system.

Adopted April 23, 1968.

§2. SUPREME COURT

The Supreme Court

(a) shall be the highest court of the Commonwealth and in this court shall be reposed the supreme judicial power of the Commonwealth;

(b) shall consist of seven justices, one of whom shall be the Chief Justice; and

(c) shall have such jurisdiction as shall be provided by law.

Adopted April 23, 1968.

§10. JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION

(a) The Supreme Court shall exercise general supervisory and administrative authority over all the courts and justices of the peace, including authority to temporarily assign judges and justices of the peace from one court or district to another as it deems appropriate.

(b) The Supreme Court shall appoint a court administrator and may appoint such subordinate administrators and staff as may be necessary and proper for the prompt and proper disposition of the business of all courts and justices of the peace.

(c) The Supreme Court shall have the power to prescribe general rules governing practice, procedure and the conduct of all courts, justices of the peace and all officers serving process or enforcing orders, judgments or decrees of any court of justice of the peace, including the power to provide for assignment and reassignment of classes of actions or classes of appeals among the several courts as the needs of justice shall require, and for admission to the bar and to practice law, and the administration of all courts and supervision of all officers of the judicial branch, if such rules are consistent with this Constitution and neither abridge, enlarge nor modify the substantive rights of any litigant, nor affect the right of the General Assembly to determine the jurisdiction of any court or justice of the peace, nor suspend nor alter any statute of limitation or repose. All laws shall be suspended to the extent that they are inconsistent with rules prescribed under these provisions.

Adopted April 23, 1968.

§16. COMPENSATION AND RETIREMENT OF JUSTICES, JUDGES AND JUSTICES OF THE PEACE

(a) Justices, judges and justices of the peace shall be retired upon attaining the age of 70 years. Former and retired justices, judges and justices of the peace shall receive such compensation as shall be provided by law. Except as provided by law, no salary, retirement benefit or other compensation, present or deferred, shall be paid to any justice, judge or justice of the peace who, under section 18 or under Article VI, is suspended, removed or barred from holding judicial office for conviction of a felony or misconduct in office or conduct which prejudices the proper administration of justice or brings the judicial office into disrepute.

[Text omitted here]

Adopted April 23, 1968. Amended May 18, 1993.

§17. PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

(a) Justices and judges shall devote full time to their judicial duties, and shall not engage in the practice of law, hold office in a political party or political organization, or hold an office or position of profit in the government of the United States, the Commonwealth or any municipal corporation or political subdivision thereof, except in the armed service of the United States or the Commonwealth.

(b) Justices and judges shall not engage in any activity prohibited by law and shall not violate any canon of legal or judicial ethics prescribed by the Supreme Court. Justices of the peace shall be governed by rules or canons which shall be prescribed by the Supreme Court.

(c) No justice, judge or justice of the peace shall be paid or accept for the performance of any judicial duty or for any service connected with his office, any fee, emolument or perquisite other than the salary and expenses provided by law.

(d) No duties shall be imposed by law upon the Supreme Court or any of the justices thereof or the Superior Court or any of the judges thereof, except such as are judicial, nor shall any of them exercise any power of appointment except as provided in this Constitution.

Adopted April 23, 1968.

§18. SUSPENSION, REMOVAL, DISCIPLINE AND OTHER SANCTIONS

(a) There shall be an independent board within the Judicial Branch, known as the Judicial Conduct Board, the composition, powers and duties of which shall be as follows:

(1) The board shall be composed of 12 members, as follows: two judges, other than senior judges, one from the courts of common pleas and the other from either the Superior Court or the Commonwealth Court, one justice of the peace who need not be a member of the bar of the Supreme Court, three non-judge members of the bar of the Supreme Court and six non-lawyer electors.

(2) The judge from either the Superior Court or the Commonwealth Court, the justice of the peace, one non-judge member of the bar of the Supreme Court and three non-lawyer electors shall be appointed to the board by the Supreme Court. The judge from the courts of common pleas, two non-judge members of the bar of the Supreme Court and three non-lawyer electors shall be appointed to the board by the Governor.

(3) Except for the initial appointees whose terms shall be provided by the schedule to this article, the members shall serve for terms of four years. All members must be residents of this Commonwealth. No more than three of the six members appointed by the Supreme Court may be registered in the same political party. No more than three of the six members appointed by the Governor may be registered in the same political party. Membership of a judge or justice of the peace shall terminate if the member ceases to hold the judicial position that qualified the member for the appointment. Membership shall terminate if a member attains a position that would have rendered the member ineligible for appointment at the time of the appointment. A vacancy shall be filled by the respective appointing authority for the remainder of the term to which the member was appointed. No member may serve more than four consecutive years but may be reappointed after a lapse of one year. The Governor shall convene the board for its first meeting. At that meeting and annually thereafter, the members of the board shall elect a chairperson. The board shall act only with the concurrence of a majority of its members.

(4) No member of the board, during the member’s term, may hold office in a political party or political organization. Except for a judicial member, no member of the board, during the member’s term, may hold a compensated public office or public appointment. All members shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred in the discharge of their official duties.

(5) The board shall prescribe general rules governing the conduct of members. A member may be removed by the board for a violation of the rules governing the conduct of members.

(6) The board shall appoint a chief counsel and other staff, prepare and administer its own budget as provided by law, exercise supervisory and administrative authority over all board staff and board functions, establish and promulgate its own rules of procedure, prepare and disseminate an annual report and take other actions as are necessary to ensure its efficient operation. The budget request of the board shall be made by the board as a separate item in the request submitted by the Supreme Court on behalf of the Judicial Branch to the General Assembly.

(7) The board shall receive and investigate complaints regarding judicial conduct filed by individuals or initiated by the board; issue subpoenas to compel testimony under oath of witnesses, including the subject of the investigation, and to compel the production of documents, books, accounts and other records relevant to the investigation; determine whether there is probable cause to file formal charges against a justice, judge or justice of the peace for conduct proscribed by this section; and present the case in support of the charges before the Court of Judicial Discipline.

(8) Complaints filed with the board or initiated by the board shall not be public information. Statements, testimony, documents, records or other information or evidence acquired by the board in the conduct of an investigation shall not be public information. A justice, judge or justice of the peace who is the subject of a complaint filed with the board or initiated by the board or of an investigation conducted by the board shall be apprised of the nature and content of the complaint and afforded an opportunity to respond fully to the complaint prior to any probable cause determination by the board. All proceedings of the board shall be confidential except when the subject of the investigation waives confidentiality. If, independent of any action by the board, the fact that an investigation by the board is in progress becomes a matter of public record, the board may, at the direction of the subject of the investigation, issue a statement to confirm that the investigation is in progress, to clarify the procedural aspects of the proceedings, to explain the rights of the subject of the investigation to a fair hearing without prejudgment or to provide the response of the subject of the investigation to the complaint. In acting to dismiss a complaint for lack of probable cause to file formal charges, the board may, at its discretion, issue a statement or report to the complainant or to the subject of the complaint, which may contain the identity of the complainant, the identity of the subject of the complaint, the contents and nature of the complaint, the actions taken in the conduct of the investigation and the results and conclusions of the investigation. The board may include with a report a copy of information or evidence acquired in the course of the investigation.

(9) If the board finds probable cause to file formal charges concerning mental or physical disability against a justice, judge or justice of the peace, the board shall so notify the subject of the charges and provide the subject with an opportunity to resign from judicial office, or when appropriate, to enter a rehabilitation program prior to the filing of the formal charges with the Court of Judicial Discipline.

(10) Members of the board and its chief counsel and staff shall be absolutely immune from suit for all conduct in the course of their official duties. No civil action or disciplinary complaint predicated upon the filing of a complaint or other documents with the board or testimony before the board may be maintained against any complainant, witness or counsel.

(b) There shall be a Court of Judicial Discipline, the composition, powers and duties of which shall be as follows:

(1) The court shall be composed of a total of eight members as follows: three judges other than senior judges from the courts of common pleas, the Superior Court or the Commonwealth Court, one justice of the peace, two non-judge members of the bar of the Supreme Court and two non-lawyer electors. Two judges, the justice of the peace and one non-lawyer elector shall be appointed to the court by the Supreme Court. One judge, the two non-judge members of the bar of the Supreme Court and one non-lawyer elector shall be appointed to the court by the Governor.

(2) Except for the initial appointees whose terms shall be provided by the schedule to this article, each member shall serve for a term of four years; however, the member, rather than the member’s successor, shall continue to participate in any hearing in progress at the end of the member’s term. All members must be residents of this Commonwealth. No more than two of the members appointed by the Supreme Court may be registered in the same political party. No more than two of the members appointed by the Governor may be registered in the same political party. Membership of a judge or justice of the peace shall terminate if the judge or justice of the peace ceases to hold the judicial position that qualified the judge or justice of the peace for appointment. Membership shall terminate if a member attains a position that would have rendered that person ineligible for appointment at the time of the appointment. A vacancy on the court shall be filled by the respective appointing authority for the remainder of the term to which the member was appointed in the same manner in which the original appointment occurred. No member of the court may serve more than four consecutive years but may be reappointed after a lapse of one year.

(3) The court shall prescribe general rules governing the conduct of members. A member may be removed by the court for a violation of the rules of conduct prescribed by the court. No member, during the member’s term of service, may hold office in any political party or political organization. Except for a judicial member no member of the court, during the member’s term of service, may hold a compensated public office or public appointment. All members of the court shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred in the discharge of their official duties.

(4) The court shall appoint staff and prepare and administer its own budget as provided by law and undertake actions needed to ensure its efficient operation. All actions of the court, including disciplinary action, shall require approval by a majority vote of the members of the court. The budget request of the court shall be made as a separate item in the request by the Supreme Court on behalf of the Judicial Branch to the General Assembly. The court shall adopt rules to govern the conduct of proceedings before the court.

(5) Upon the filing of formal charges with the court by the board, the court shall promptly schedule a hearing or hearings to determine whether a sanction should be imposed against a justice, judge or justice of the peace pursuant to the provisions of this section. The court shall be a court of record, with all the attendant duties and powers appropriate to its function. Formal charges filed with the court shall be a matter of public record. All hearings conducted by the court shall be public proceedings conducted pursuant to the rules adopted by the court and in accordance with the principles of due process and the law of evidence. Parties appearing before the court shall have a right to discovery pursuant to the rules adopted by the court and shall have the right to subpoena witnesses and to compel the production of documents, books, accounts and other records as relevant. The subject of the charges shall be presumed innocent in any proceeding before the court, and the board shall have the burden of proving the charges by clear and convincing evidence. All decisions of the court shall be in writing and shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law. A decision of the court may order removal from office, suspension, censure or other discipline as authorized by this section and as warranted by the record.

(6) Members of the court and the court’s staff shall be absolutely immune from suit for all conduct in the course of their official duties, and no civil action or disciplinary complaint predicated on testimony before the court may be maintained against any witness or counsel.

(c) Decisions of the court shall be subject to review as follows:

(1) A justice, judge or justice of the peace shall have the right to appeal a final adverse order of discipline of the court. A judge or justice of the peace shall have the right to appeal to the Supreme Court in a manner consistent with rules adopted by the Supreme Court; a justice shall have the right to appeal to a special tribunal composed of seven judges, other than senior judges, chosen by lot from the judges of the Superior Court and Commonwealth Court who do not sit on the Court of Judicial Discipline or the board, in a manner consistent with rules adopted by the Supreme Court. The special tribunal shall hear and decide the appeal in the same manner in which the Supreme Court would hear and decide an appeal from an order of the court.

(2) On appeal, the Supreme Court of special tribunal shall review the record of the proceedings of the court as follows: on the law, the scope of review is plenary; on the facts, the scope of review is clearly erroneous; and, as to sanctions, the scope of review is whether the sanctions imposed were lawful. The Supreme Court or special tribunal may revise or reject an order of the court upon a determination that the order did not sustain this standard of review; otherwise, the Supreme Court or special tribunal shall affirm the order of the court.

(3) An order of the court which dismisses a complaint against a judge or justice of the peace may be appealed by the board to the supreme court, but the appeal shall be limited
Any appeal, the justice, judge or justice of the peace shall be suspended or removed from office; and the salary of the justice, judge or justice of the peace shall cease from the date of the order.

Prior to a hearing, the court may issue an interim order directing the suspension, with or without pay, of any justice, judge or justice of the peace against whom formal charges have been filed with the court by the board or against whom has been filed an indictment or information charging a felony. An interim order under this paragraph shall not be considered a final order from which an appeal may be taken.

A justice, judge or justice of the peace convicted of misbehavior in office by a court, disbarred as a member of the bar of the Supreme Court or removed under this section shall forfeit automatically his judicial office and thereafter be ineligible for judicial office.

A justice, judge or justice of the peace who files for nomination for or election to any public office other than a judicial office shall forfeit automatically his judicial office.

This section is in addition to and not in substitution for the provisions for impeachment for misbehavior in office contained in Article VI. No justice, judge or justice of the peace against whom impeachment proceedings are pending in the senate shall exercise any of the duties of office until acquittal.

CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Canon 1. A Judge Should Uphold the Integrity and Independence of the Judiciary

An independent and honorable judiciary is indispensable to justice in our society. A judge should participate in establishing, maintaining, and enforcing, and should himself observe, high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary may be preserved. The provisions of this Code should be construed and applied to further that objective.

Canon 2. A Judge Should Avoid Impropriety and the Appearance of Impropriety in All His Activities

A. A judge should respect and comply with the law and should conduct himself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary.

B. A judge should not allow his family, social, or other relationships to influence his judicial conduct or judgment. He should not lend the prestige of his office to advance the private interests of others; nor should he convey or knowingly permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence him. He should not testify voluntarily as a character witness.

Commentary

Public confidence in the judiciary is eroded by irresponsible or improper conduct of judges. A judge must avoid all impropriety and appearance of impropriety. He must expect to be the subject of constant public scrutiny. He must therefore accept restrictions on his conduct that might be viewed as burdensome by the ordinary citizen and should do so freely and willingly. The testimony of a judge as a character witness injects the prestige of his office into the proceeding in which he testifies and may be misunderstood to be an official testimonial. This Canon, however, does not afford him a privilege against testifying in response to an official summons.

Canon 3. A Judge Should Perform the Duties of His Office Impartially and Diligently

The judicial duties of a judge take precedence over all his other activities. His judicial duties include all the duties of his office prescribed by law. In the performance of these duties, the following standards apply:

A. Adjudicative Responsibilities

(1) A judge should be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it. He should be unswayed by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism.

(2) A judge should maintain order and decorum in proceedings before him.

(3) A judge should be patient, dignified, and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers, and others with whom he deals in his official capacity, and should require similar conduct of lawyers, and of his staff, court officials, and others subject to his direction and control.
Commentary

The duty to hear all proceedings fairly and with patience is not inconsistent with the duty to dispose promptly of the business of the court. Courts can be efficient and business-like while being patient and deliberate.

(4) A judge should accord to every person who is legally interested in a proceeding, or his lawyer, full right to be heard according to law, and, except as authorized by law, must not consider ex parte communications concerning a pending proceeding.

(5) A judge should dispose promptly of the business of the court.

Commentary

Prompt disposition of the court’s business requires a judge to devote adequate time to his duties, to be punctual in attending court and expeditious in determining matters under submission, and to insist that court officials, litigants and their lawyers cooperate with him to that end.

(6) A judge should abstain from public comment about a pending proceeding in any court, and should require similar abstention on the part of court personnel subject to his direction and control. This subsection does not prohibit judges from making public statements in the course of their official duties or from explaining for public information the procedures of the court.

Commentary

“Court personnel” does not include the lawyers in a proceeding before a judge. The conduct of lawyers is governed by DR 7-107 of the Code of Professional Responsibility.

(7) A judge should prohibit broadcasting, televising, recording or taking photographs in the courtroom and areas immediately adjacent thereto during sessions of court or recesses between sessions, except that a judge may authorize:

(a) the use of electronic or photographic means for the presentation of evidence, for the perpetuation of a record, or for other purposes of judicial administration;

(b) the broadcasting, televising, recording, or photographing of investitive, ceremonial, or naturalization proceedings;

(c) the photographic or electronic recording and reproduction of appropriate court proceedings under the following conditions:

(i) the means of recording will not distract participants or impair the dignity of the proceedings; and

(ii) the parties have consented, and the consent to being depicted or recorded has been obtained from each witness appearing in the recording and reproductions; and

(iii) the reproduction will not be exhibited until after the proceedings has been concluded and all direct appeals have been exhausted; and

(iv) the reproduction will be exhibited only for instructional purposes in educational institutions.

(d) the use of electronic broadcasting televising, recording and taking photographs in the courtroom and areas immediately adjacent thereto during sessions of court or recesses between sessions of any trial court non-jury civil proceeding, however, for the purposes of this subsection “civil proceedings” shall not be construed to mean a support, custody or divorce proceedings. Subsection (iii) and (iv) shall not apply to non-jury civil proceedings as heretofore defined. No witness or party who expresses any prior objection to the judge shall be photographed nor shall the testimony of such witness or party be broadcast or telecast. Permission for the broadcasting, televising, recording and photographing of any civil non-jury proceeding shall have first been expressly granted by the judge, and under such conditions as the judge may prescribe in accordance with the guidelines contained in this Order.

Publisher’s Note

Paragraph 2 of the order of the Supreme Court of Sept. 20, 1979, amending Canon 3(A)(7) of the Code of Judicial Conduct by adding paragraph (d), provided as follows:

“a. Officers of Court. The judge has the authority to direct whether broadcast equipment may be taken within the courtroom. The broadcast news person should advise the tipstaff prior to the start of a court session that he or she desires to electronically record and/or broadcast live from within the courtroom. The tipstaff may have prior instructions from the judge as to where the broadcast reporter and/or camera operator may position themselves. In the absence of any directions from the judge or tipstaff, the position should be behind the front row of spectator seats by the least used aisle way or other unobtrusive but viable location.

“b. Pooling. Unless the judge directs otherwise, no more than one TV camera should be taking pictures in the courtroom at any one time. Where coverage is by both radio and TV, the microphones used by TV should also serve for radio and radio should be permitted to feed from the TV sound system. Multiple radio feeds, if any, should be provided by a junction box outside of the courtroom, such as in the adjacent public hallway. It should be the responsibility of each broadcast news representative present at the opening of each session of court to achieve an understanding with all other broadcast representatives as to who will function at any given time, or, in the alternative, how they will pool their photographic coverage. This understanding should be reached outside the courtroom and without imposing on the judge or court personnel.

“Broadcast coverage outside the courtroom should be handled with care and discretion, but need not be pooled.

c. Broadcast Equipment. All running wires used should be securely taped to the floor. All broadcasting equipment should be handled as inconspicuously and quietly as reasonably possible. Sufficient file and/or tape capacities should be provided to obviate film and/or tape changes except during court recess. No camera should give any indication of whether it is or is not operating, such as the red light on some studio cameras. No additional lights should be used without the specific approval of the presiding judge, and then only as he may specifically approve.

d. Decorum. Broadcast representatives’ dress should not set them apart unduly from other trial spectators. Camera operators should not move tripod-mounted cameras except during court recesses. All broadcast equipment should be in place and ready to function no less than five minutes before the beginning of each session of court.”

Paragraph 3 of the order of Sept. 20, 1979, provided that at the expiration of the one year period during which such order is effective, “Canon 3(A)7 shall be reinstated, without further order of this court, in its form immediately prior to the entry of this Order.”

Order of the Supreme Court of Oct. 1, 1980, provided that the order of Sept. 20, 1979, should remain in effect until further order of said court.

B. Administrative Responsibilities

(1) A judge should diligently discharge his administrative responsibilities, maintain professional competence in judicial administration, and facilitate the performance of the administrative responsibilities of other judges and court officials.

(2) A judge should require his staff and court officials subject to his direction and control to observe the standards of fidelity and diligence that apply to him.

(3) A judge should take or initiate appropriate disciplinary measures against a judge or lawyer for unprofessional conduct of which the judge may become aware.

Commentary

Disciplinary measures may include reporting a judge’s or lawyer’s misconduct to an appropriate disciplinary body.

(4) A judge should not make unnecessary appointments. He should exercise his power of appointment only on the basis of merit, avoiding favoritism. He should not approve compensation of appointees beyond the fair value of services rendered.

Commentary

Appointees of the judge include officials such as referees, commissioners, special masters, receivers, guardians and personnel such as clerks, secretaries, and bailiffs. Consent by the parties to an appointment or an award of compensation does not relieve the judge of the obligation prescribed by this subsection.

C. Disqualification

(1) A judge should disqualify himself in a proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including but not limited to instances where:

(a) he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(b) he served as lawyer in the matter of controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(c) he knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a substantial financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(d) he or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:
(i) is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;
(ii) is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

Commentary

The fact that a lawyer in a proceeding is affiliated with a law firm with which a lawyer-relative of the judge is affiliated does not of itself disqualify the judge. Under appropriate circumstances, the fact that “his impartiality might reasonably be questioned” under Canon 3C(1), or that the lawyer-relative is known by the judge to have an interest in the law firm that could be “substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding” under Canon 3C(1)(d)(iii) may require his disqualification.

(iii) is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;
(iv) is to the judge’s knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(2) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(3) For the purposes of this section:

(a) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;

Commentary

According to the civil law system, the third degree of relationship test would, for example, disqualify the judge if his or his spouse’s father, grandfather, uncle, brother, or niece’s husband were a party or lawyer in the proceeding, but would not disqualify him if a cousin were a party or lawyer in the proceeding.

(b) “fiduciary” includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(c) “financial interest” means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, if substantial, or a relationship as director, advisor, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) an office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(iii) the proprietary interest of a policy holder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a substantial “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) ownership of securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of securities.

Amended September 20, 1979, effective October 1, 1979; amended effective October 1, 1980.

Canon 4. A JUDGE MAY ENGAGE IN ACTIVITIES TO IMPROVE THE LAW, THE LEGAL SYSTEM, AND THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE

A judge, subject to the proper performance of his judicial duties, may engage in the following quasi-judicial activities, if in doing so he does not cast doubt on his capacity to decide impartially any issue that may come before him:

A. He may speak, write, lecture, teach, and participate in other activities concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

B. He may appear at a public hearing before an executive or legislative body or official on matters concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice, and he may otherwise consult with an executive or legislative body or official, but only on matters concerning the administration of justice.

C. He may serve as a member, officer, or director of an organization or governmental agency developed to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. He may assist such an organization in raising funds and may participate in their management and investment, but should not personally participate in public fund raising activities. He may make recommendations to public and private fund-granting agencies on projects and programs concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

Commentary

As a judicial officer and person specially learned in the law, a judge is in a unique position to contribute to the improvement of the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice. To the extent that his time permits, he is encouraged to do so, either independently or through a bar association, judicial conference, or other organization dedicated to the improvement of law.

Extra-judicial activities are governed by Canon 5.

Canon 5. A JUDGE SHOULD REGULATE HIS EXTRA-JUDICIAL ACTIVITIES TO MINIMIZE THE RISK OF CONFLICT WITH HIS JUDICIAL DUTIES

A. Avocational Activities

A judge may write, lecture, teach, and speak on non-legal subjects, and engage in the arts, sports, and other social and recreational activities, if such avocational activities do not detract from the dignity of his office or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties.

Commentary

Complete separation of a judge from extra-judicial activities is neither possible nor wise; he should not become isolated from the society in which he lives.

B. Civic and Charitable Activities

A judge may participate in civic and charitable activities that do not reflect adversely upon his impartiality or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties. A judge may serve as an officer, director, trustee, or non-legal advisor of an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization not conducted for the economic or political advantage of its members, subject to the following limitations:

(1) A judge should not serve if it is likely that the organization will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him or will be regularly engaged in adversary proceedings in any court.

Commentary

The changing nature of some organizations and of their relationship to the law makes it necessary for a judge regularly to reexamine the activities of each organization with which he is affiliated to determine if it is proper for him to continue his relationship with it. For example, in many jurisdictions charitable hospitals are now more frequently in court than in the past. Similarly, the boards of some legal aid organizations now make policy decisions that may have political significance or imply commitment to causes that may come before the courts for adjudication.

(2) A judge should not solicit funds for any educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of his office for that purpose, but he may be listed as an officer, director, or trustee of such an organization. He should not be a speaker or the guest of honor at an organization’s fund raising events, but he may attend such events.

(3) A judge should not give investment advice to such an organization, but he may serve on its board of directors or trustees even though it has the responsibility for approving investment decisions.

Commentary

A judge’s participation in an organization devoted to quasi-judicial activities is governed by Canon 4.

C. Financial Activities

(1) A judge should refrain from financial and business dealings that tend to reflect adversely on his impartiality, interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties, exploit his judicial position, or involve him in frequent transactions with lawyers or persons likely to come before the court on which he serves.

(2) Subject to the requirement of subsection (1), a judge may hold and manage investments, including real estate, and engage in other remunerative activity including the operation of a family business.

Commentary

The Effective Date of Compliance provision of this Code qualifies this subsection with regard to a judge engaged in a family business at the time this Code becomes effective.

(3) A judge should manage his investments and other financial interests to minimize the number of cases in which he is disqualified. As soon as he can do so without serious financial detriment, he should divest himself of investments and other financial interests that might require frequent disqualification.

(4) Information acquired by a judge in his judicial capacity should not be used or disclosed by him in financial dealings or for any other purpose not related to his judicial duties.

D. Fiduciary Activities

A judge should not serve as the executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or other fiduciary, except for the estate, trust, or person of a member of his family, and then only if such service will not interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties. “Member of his family” includes a spouse, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent, or other relative or person with whom the judge maintains a close familial relationship. As a family fiduciary a judge is subject to the following restrictions:

(1) He should not serve if it is likely that as a fiduciary he will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him, or if the estate, trust, or ward becomes involved in adversary proceedings in the court on which he serves or one under its appellate jurisdiction.

Commentary

The Effective Date of Compliance provision of this Code qualifies this subsection with regard to a judge who is an executor, administrator, trustee, or other fiduciary at the time this Code becomes effective.

(2) While acting as a fiduciary a judge is subject to the same restrictions on financial activities that apply to him on his personal capacity.

Commentary

A judge’s obligation under this Canon and his obligation as a fiduciary may come into conflict. For example, a judge should resign as trustee if it would result in detriment to the trust to divest if of holdings whose retention would place the judge in violation of Canon 5C(3).

E. Arbitration
A judge should not act as an arbitrator or mediator.

F. Practice of Law
A judge should not practice law.

G. Extra-Judicial Appointments
A judge should not accept appointment to a governmental committee, commission, or other position that is concerned with issues of fact or policy on matters other than the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. A judge, however, may represent his country, state, or locality on ceremonial occasions or in connection with historical, educational, and cultural activities.

Commentary
Valuable services have been rendered in the past to the states and the nation by judges appointed by the executive to undertake important extra-judicial assignments. The appropriateness of conferring these assignments on judges must be reassessed, however, in light of the demands on judicial manpower created by today’s crowded dockets and the need to protect the courts from involvement in extra-judicial matters that may prove to be controversial. Judges should not be expected or permitted to accept governmental appointments that could interfere with the effectiveness and independence of the judiciary.

Canon 6. COMPENSATION RECEIVED FOR QUASI-JUDICIAL AND EXTRA-JUDICIAL ACTIVITIES PERMITTED BY THIS CODE
A judge may receive compensation and reimbursement of expenses for the quasi-judicial and extra-judicial activities permitted by this Code, if the source of such payments does not give the appearance of influencing the judge in his judicial duties or otherwise give the appearance of impropriety, subject to the following restrictions:

A. Compensation
Compensation should not exceed a reasonable amount nor should it exceed what a person who is not a judge would receive for the same activity.

B. Expense Reimbursement
Expense reimbursement should be limited to the actual cost of travel, food, and lodging reasonably incurred by the judge, and where appropriate to the occasion, by his spouse.

Canon 7. A JUDGE SHOULD REFRAIN FROM POLITICAL ACTIVITY INAPPROPRIATE TO HIS JUDICIAL OFFICE

A. Political Conduct in General
(1) A judge or a candidate for election to judicial office should not:
   (a) act as a leader or hold any office in a political organization;
   (b) make speeches for a political organization or candidate or publicly endorse a candidate for public office; except as authorized in subsection A(2):

Commentary
A candidate does not publicly endorse another candidate for public office by having his name on the same ticket.

   (c) solicit funds for or pay an assessment or make a contribution to a political organization or candidate, attend political gatherings, or purchase tickets for political party dinners, or other functions, except as authorized in subsection A(2):

(2) A judge holding an office filled by public election between competing candidates, or a candidate for such office, may, only insofar as permitted by law, attend political gatherings, speak to such gatherings on his own behalf when he is a candidate for election or reelection, or speak on behalf of any judicial candidate for the same office, identify himself as a member of a political party, and contribute to a political party or organization.

(3) A judge should resign his office when he becomes a candidate either in a party primary or in a general election for a non-judicial office, except that he may continue to hold his judicial office while being a candidate for election to or serving as a delegate in a state constitutional convention, if he is otherwise permitted by law to do so.

(4) A judge should not engage in any other political activity except on behalf of measures to improve the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice.

B. Campaign Conduct
(1) A candidate, including an incumbent judge, for a judicial office, that is filled either by public election between competing candidates or on the basis of a merit system election:
   (a) should maintain the dignity appropriate to judicial office, and should encourage members of his family to adhere to the same standards of political conduct that apply to him:
   (b) should prohibit public officials or employees subject to his direction or control from doing for him what he is prohibited from doing.
under this Canon; and except to the extent authorized under subsection B(2) or B(3), he should not allow any other person to do for him what he is prohibited from doing under this Canon;

(c) should not make pledges or promises of conduct in office other than the faithful and impartial performance of the duties of the office; make statements that commit or appear to commit the candidate with respect to cases, controversies or issues that are likely to come before the court; or misrepresent his identity, qualifications, present position, or other fact.

(2) A candidate, including an incumbent judge, for a judicial office that is filled by public election between competing candidates should not himself solicit or accept campaign funds, or solicit publicly stated support, but he may establish committees of responsible persons to secure and manage the expenditure of funds for his campaign and to obtain public statements of support for his candidacy. Such committees are not prohibited from soliciting campaign contributions and public support from lawyers. A candidate’s committees may solicit funds for his campaign no earlier than thirty (30) days prior to the first day for filing nominating petitions or the last day for filing a declaration of intention to seek reelection on a retention basis, and all fundraising activities in connection with such judicial campaign shall terminate no later than the last calendar day of the year in which the judicial election is held. A candidate should not use or permit the use of campaign contributions for the private benefit of himself or members of his family.

(3) An incumbent judge who is a candidate for retention in or reelection to office without a competing candidate may campaign and may obtain publicly stated support and campaign funds in the manner provided in subsection B(2).

COMPLIANCE WITH THE CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Anyone, whether or not a lawyer, who is an officer of a judicial system performing judicial functions, including an officer such as a referee in bankruptcy, special master, court commission, or magistrate is a judge for the purpose of this Code. All judges should comply with this Code except as provided below.

Senior Judge. A senior judge who receives the same compensation as a full-time judge on the court from which he retired and is eligible for recall to judicial service should comply with all the provisions of this Code except Canon 5G, but he should refrain from judicial service during the period of an extra-judicial appointment not sanctioned by Canon 5G. All other senior judges eligible for recall to judicial service should comply with the provisions of this Code.

This Code shall not apply to justices of the peace, police magistrates of the City of Pittsburgh and judges of the Traffic Court of the City of Philadelphia.

Note

Specific rules governing standards of conduct of justices of the peace, including police magistrates of the City of Pittsburgh and judges of the Traffic Court of the City of Philadelphia, are set forth in the Rules Governing Standards of Conduct of Justices of the Peace.

Amended effective January 22, 1974.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF COMPLIANCE

A person to whom this Code becomes applicable should arrange his affairs as soon as reasonably possible to comply with it. If, however, the demands on his time and the possibility of conflicts of interest are not substantial, a person who holds judicial office on the date this Code becomes effective may:

(a) continue to act as an officer, director, or nonlegal advisor of a family business;
(b) continue to act as an executor, administrator, trustee, or other fiduciary for the estate or person of one who is not a member of his family.

The effective date of this Code shall be January 1, 1974.

RELIANCE ON ADVISORY OPINIONS

The Ethics Committee of the Pennsylvania Conference of State Trial Judges is designated as the approved body to render advisory opinions regarding ethical concerns involving judges, justices and other judicial officers subject to the Code of Judicial Conduct, and although such opinions are not per se binding upon either the Judicial Inquiry and Review Board or the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, action taken in reliance thereupon and pursuant thereto shall be taken into account in determining whether discipline should be recommended or imposed.

RULES GOVERNING STANDARDS OF CONDUCT OF DISTRICT JUSTICES

RULE 1. Integrity and Independence of Judiciary

An independent and honorable judiciary is indispensable to justice. A district justice should participate in establishing, maintaining and enforcing, and shall himself observe, high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary may be preserved. The provisions of these rules governing standards of conduct of district justices shall be construed and applied to further that objective.

Note

This rule is derived from Canon 1, American Bar Association Code of Judicial Conduct. This and the following rules governing standards of conduct of district justices provide a complete and exclusive code of conduct for justices of the peace in Pennsylvania. Those canons of the Code of Judicial Conduct of the American Bar Association thought applicable to district justices have been paraphrased in these rules, and some of the former standards of conduct rules, which were thought to be more pertinent to district justices in Pennsylvania than counterpart canons of the American Bar Association Code of Judicial Conduct, have been retained. In determining the standards that apply to him, the district justice need now consult only these rules and will not be required to consult other sources as was the case heretofore.
When canons of the American Bar Association Code of Judicial Conduct have been paraphrased in these rules, pertinent official commentaries to those canons and those parts of the canons thought to be merely expository are set forth in the notes rather than in the rules.

RULE 2. IMpropriety AND APPEARANCE OF IMpropriety TO Be AVOIDED; VOLUNTARY APPEARANCE AS CHARACTER WITNESS PROHIBITED

A. A district justice shall respect and comply with the law and shall conduct himself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary. A district justice shall not allow his family, social or other relationships to influence his judicial conduct or judgment. He shall not lend the prestige of his office to advance the private interest of others, nor shall he convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence him.

B. A district justice shall not testify voluntarily as a character witness.

Note

This rule is derived from Canon 2, American Bar Association Code of Judicial Conduct, and Pa.R.J.A. No. 1701. Public confidence in the judiciary is eroded by irresponsible or improper conduct by members of the judiciary. A district justice must avoid all impropriety and appearance of impropriety. He must expect to be the subject of constant public scrutiny. He must therefore accept restrictions on his conduct that might be viewed as burdensome by the ordinary citizen and should do so freely and willingly.

The testimony of a district justice as a character witness injects the prestige of his office into the proceeding in which he testifies and may be misunderstood to be an official testimonial. Rule 2B, however, does not afford him a privilege against testifying as a character witness in response to a subpoena the issuance of which has been specifically allowed by the Supreme Court under Pa.R.J.A. No. 1701.

RULE 3. PRIORITY OF JUDICIAL BUSINESS

A. A district justice shall devote the time necessary for the prompt and proper disposition of the business of his office, which shall be given priority over any other occupation, business, profession, pursuit or activity.

B. A district justice shall not use or permit the use of the premises established for the disposition of his magisterial business for any other occupation, business, profession or gainful pursuit.

Note

This rule is derived from former Rule 1.

RULE 4. ADJUDICATIVE RESPONSIBILITIES

A. A district justice shall be faithful to the law and maintain competence in it. He shall be unswayed by partisan interests, public clamor or fear of criticism.

B. A district justice shall maintain order and decorum in the proceedings before him. He shall wear judicial robes while conducting hearings and trials.

C. A district justice shall be patient, dignified and courteous to litigants, witnesses, lawyers and others with whom he deals in his official capacity, and shall require similar conduct of lawyers, of his staff and others subject to his direction and control.

D. A district justice shall accord to every person who is legally interested in a proceeding, or his lawyer, full right to be heard according to law and, except as authorized by law, neither initiate nor consider ex parte or other communications concerning a pending or impending proceeding. A district justice, however, may obtain the advice of a disinterested expert on the law applicable to a proceeding before him if he gives notice to the parties of the person consulted and the substance of the advice and affords the parties reasonable opportunities to respond.

Note

This rule is derived in part from Canon 3A(1)-(4) of the American Bar Association and Pennsylvania Supreme Court Code of Judicial Conduct. District justices are to be provided with the judicial robes required by subdivision B as part of the expense of operating their offices (see Rule 101(3)). The proscription against communications in subdivision D includes communications from lawyers, law teachers and other persons who are not participants in the proceeding, except to the limited extent permitted. It does not preclude a district justice from consulting with other members of the judiciary or with court personnel whose function it is to aid the judiciary in carrying out adjudicative responsibilities.

RULE 5. ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITIES

A. A district justice shall diligently discharge his administrative responsibilities, maintain competence in judicial administration and facilitate the performance of the administrative responsibilities of his staff and of other members of the judiciary and court officials.

B. A district justice shall require his staff to observe the standards of fidelity and diligence that apply to him.

C. A district justice shall not make unnecessary appointments to his staff. He shall exercise any such power of appointment that he may have only on the basis of merit, avoiding nepotism and favoritism.

Note

This rule is derived from Canon 3B(1), (2) and (4), American Bar Association Code of Judicial Conduct.

RULE 6. PUBLIC COMMENT

A district justice shall abstain from public comment about a proceeding pending or impending in his office or in any court, and shall require similar abstention on the part of his staff. This rule does not prohibit district justices from making public statements in the course of their official duties or from explaining for public information the procedures of the court.

Note

This rule is derived from Canon 3A(6), the American Bar Association Code of Judicial Conduct.

RULE 7. BROADCASTING, TELEVISING, RECORDING, PHOTOGRAPHY

A district justice shall prohibit broadcasting, televising, recording or taking photographs in the courtroom and areas immediately adjacent thereto during sessions or recesses between sessions, except that a district justice may authorize:

(1) the use of electronic or photographic means for the presentation of evidence, for the perpetuation of a record or for other purposes of judicial administration; and

(2) the broadcasting, televising, recording or photographing of investitive or ceremonial proceedings.

Note

This rule is derived from Canon 3A(7)(a), (b) of the American Bar Association and Pennsylvania Supreme Court Code of Judicial Conduct. With respect to proceedings before district justices, it did not seem desirable to include the authority for reproduction for educational purposes set forth in Canon 3A(7)(c). This rule is not intended to affect or limit Pa.R.Crim.P. 27.

RULE 8. DISQUALIFICATION

A. A district justice shall disqualify himself in a proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including but not limited to instances where:

(1) he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceedings;

(2) he served as a lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the district justice or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) he knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or a minor child residing in his household has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(4) he or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person;

(a) is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director or trustee of a party;

(b) is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

(c) is known by the district justice to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(d) is to the knowledge of the district justice likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

B. A district justice shall inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

Note

This rule is derived from Canon 3C, American Bar Association Code of Judicial Conduct. For the purpose of this rule, "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee and guardian, and "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, advisor or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that: (1) ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the justice of the peace participates in the management of the fund; (2) an office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization; (3) the propriety interest of a policy holder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association or a similar propriety interest is a "financial interest" in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest; and (4) ownership of government securities is a "financial interest" in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities. "Degree of relationship" is calculated according to the civil law system. Thus, the third degree of relationship test would, for example, disqualify the district justice if his or his spouse’s father, grandfather, uncle, brother or niece’s husband were a party or a lawyer in the proceeding, but would not disqualify him if a cousin were a party or lawyer in the proceeding.

A lawyer in a governmental agency does not necessarily have an association with other lawyers employed by that agency within the meaning of subdivision A(2). A district justice formerly employed by a governmental agency, however, should disqualify himself in a proceeding if his impartiality might reasonably be questioned because of such association.

The fact that a lawyer in a proceeding is affiliated with a law firm with which a lawyer-relative of the district justice is affiliated does not of itself disqualify the justice of the peace. Under appropriate circumstances, the fact that "his impartiality might reasonably be questioned" under subdivision A, or that the lawyer-relative is known by the district justice to have an interest in the law firm that could be "substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding" under subdivision A(4)(c) may require his disqualification.

RULE 9. REMITTAL OF DISQUALIFICATION; MINIMIZING DISQUALIFICATION

A. A district justice disqualified by Rule 8A(3) or (4) may, instead of withdrawing from the proceeding, disclose the basis of his disqualification. If, based on such disclosure, the parties and lawyers, independently of the participation of the district justice, all agree in writing that the relationship of the district justice is immaterial or that his financial interest is insubstantial, the district justice is no longer disqualified and may participate in the proceeding. The agreement, signed by all parties and lawyers, shall be attached to the record copy of the complaint form.

B. A district justice shall manage his investments and other financial interests to minimize the number of cases in which he is disqualified. As soon as he can do so without serious financial detriment, he shall divest himself of investments and other financial interests that might require frequent disqualification.

Note
Subdivision A is derived from Canon 3D, American Bar Association Code of Judicial Conduct. The procedure in this subdivision is designed to minimize the chance that a party or lawyer will feel coerced into an agreement. When a party is not immediately available, the district justice may proceed on the written assurance of the lawyer that his party’s consent will be subsequently filed.

Subdivision B is derived from Canon 5C(3), American Bar Association Code of Judicial Conduct.

RULE 10. INFORMATION ACQUIRED IN JUDICIAL CAPACITY

Information acquired by a district justice in his judicial capacity shall not be used or disclosed by him in financial dealings or for any other purpose not related to his judicial duties.

Note
This rule is derived from Canon 5C(7), American Bar Association Code of Judicial Conduct.

RULE 11. SOLICITATION OF FUNDS

A district justice shall not solicit funds for any educational, religious, charitable, fraternal or civic organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of his office for that purpose, but he may be listed as an officer, director or trustee of such an organization. He shall not be a speaker or the guest of honor at such an organization’s public fund raising events, but he may attend such events.

Note
This rule is derived from Canon 5B(2), American Bar Association Code of Judicial Conduct.

RULE 12. GIFTS AND LOANS

A. A district justice may accept a gift incident to a public testimonial to him and books supplied by publishers on a complimentary basis for public use. A district justice or a member of his family residing in his household may accept ordinary social hospitality; a gift, bequest, favor or loan from a relative; a wedding or engagement gift; a loan from a lending institution in its regular course of business on the same terms generally available to persons who are not district justices; or a scholarship or fellowship awarded on the same terms applied to other applicants.

B. A district justice or a member of his family residing in his household may accept any other gift, bequest, favor or loan only if the donor is not a party or other person whose interests have come or are likely to come before the district justice.

Note
This rule is derived from Canon 5C(4), American Bar Association Code of Judicial Conduct. For the purpose of this rule, "member of his family residing in his household" means any relative of the justice of the peace by blood or marriage, or a person treated by the district justice as a member of his family, who resides in his household.

RULE 13. INCOMPATIBLE PRACTICES
District justices, constables and all employees assigned to or appointed by district justices shall not engage, directly or indirectly, in any activity or act incompatible with the expeditious, proper and impartial discharge of their duties, including, but not limited to, (1) in any activity prohibited by law; (2) in the collection business; or (3) in the acceptance of any premium or fee for any judicial bond. A district justice shall not exploit his judicial position for financial gain or for any business or professional advantage. A district justice shall not receive any fee or emolument for performing the duties of an arbitrator.

Note
The next to the last sentence of this rule is derived in part from Canon 5C(1) of the American Bar Association and Pennsylvania Supreme Court Code of Judicial Conduct.

RULE 14. PROHIBITED PRACTICE OF ATTORNEY DISTRICT JUSTICES
A. An attorney who is a district justice shall not practice before any district justice in the Commonwealth, nor shall he act as a lawyer in a proceeding in which he has served as a district justice or in any other proceeding related thereto. Nor shall he practice criminal law in the county within which his magisterial district is located. An employer, employee, partner or office associate of such district justice shall not appear or practice before him.

B. An attorney who is a district justice shall not practice before, or act as an attorney or solicitor for, any county or local municipal, governmental or quasi governmental agency, board, authority or commission operating within the Commonwealth.

Note
Subdivision A of this rule is derived from former Rule 3A and Compliance Exception A(2), American Bar Association Code of Judicial Conduct. Subdivision B is derived from former Rule 3B. This rule contains all the prohibitions upon the practice of law by attorney district justices that were thought necessary.

RULE 15. PUBLIC OFFICE AND POLITICAL ACTIVITY
A. A district justice shall not hold another office or position of profit in the government of the United States, the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof, except in the armed services of the United States or the Commonwealth.

B. A district justice or a candidate for such office shall not:
(1) hold office in a political party or political organization or publicly endorse candidates for political office.
(2) engage in partisan political activity, deliver political speeches, make or solicit political contributions (including purchasing tickets for political party dinners or other functions) or attend political or party conventions or gatherings, except as authorized in subdivision C of this rule. Nothing herein shall prevent a district justice or a candidate for such office from making political contributions to a campaign of a member of his immediate family.

C. A district justice or a candidate for such office may, in the year he runs for office, attend political or party conventions or gatherings, speak to such gatherings or conventions on his own behalf, identify himself as a member of a political party, and contribute to his own campaign, a political party or political organization (including purchasing tickets for political party dinners or other functions).

D. With respect to his campaign conduct, a district justice or a candidate for such office shall:
(1) maintain the dignity appropriate to judicial office, and shall encourage members of his family to adhere to the same standards of political conduct that apply to him.
(2) prohibit public officials or employees subject to his direction or control from doing for him what he is prohibited from doing under this rule; and except to the extent authorized under subdivision D(4) of this rule shall not allow any other person to do for him what he is prohibited from doing under this rule.
(3) not make pledges or promises of conduct in office.
other than the faithful and impartial performance of the duties of the office; make statements that commit or appear to commit the candidate with respect to cases, controversies or issues that are likely to come before the court; or misrepresent his identity, qualifications, present position or other fact.

(4) Not himself solicit or accept campaign funds, or solicit publicly stated support, but he may establish committees of responsible persons to secure and manage the expenditure of funds for his campaign and to obtain public statements of support for his candidacy. Such committees are not prohibited from soliciting campaign contributions and public support from lawyers. A candidate’s committees may solicit funds for his campaign no earlier than thirty (30) days prior to the first day for filing nominating petitions, and all fundraising activities in connection with such campaign shall terminate no later than the last calendar day of the year in which the election is held. A candidate should not use or permit the use of a campaign contribution for the private benefit of himself or members of his family.

E. A district justice shall resign his office when he becomes a candidate either in a party primary or in a general election for a non-judicial office.

Note

This rule is derived from former Rule 15 and from Canon 7 of the American Bar Association and Pennsylvania Supreme Court Code of Judicial Conduct. It should be noted that this rule prohibits only political activity that is partisan in nature and consequently there is no objection to a district justice becoming engaged in political activity of a public service nature, such as, for example, political activity in behalf of measures to improve the law, the legal system or the administration of justice.

RULE 17. SUPERVISION OF DISTRICT JUSTICES BY PRESIDENT JUDGES

The president judge of the court of common pleas of a judicial district shall exercise general supervision and administrative control over district justices within his judicial district.

Note

The striking of constables from the heading and body of Rule 17 is pursuant to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court holding in Rosenwald v. Barbieri, 501 Pa. 563, 462 A.2d 644, 1983.

RULE 18. APPLICABILITY TO JUDGES OF THE PITTSBURGH MAGISTRATES COURT AND OF THE TRAFFIC COURTS OF PITTSBURGH AND PHILADELPHIA

Except for Rule 16, the above rules governing standards of conduct for district justices also apply to, and “district justice” as used therein additionally includes, the judges of the Pittsburgh Magistrates Court and of the traffic courts of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

Note

RULE 19. CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS OF INTERESTED PERSONS

District justices, bail commissioners and judges who are not members of the bar of this Commonwealth shall complete a course of training and instruction in the duties of their respective offices and pass an examination and be certified by the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts prior to assuming office. In addition to those required to complete the course of training and instruction, any interested person may apply to the Administrative Office to be enrolled in the course of instruction and take the examination.

Any person successfully completing the course of training and instruction and examination, who has not served as a district justice, bail commissioner or Judge within two years, will be required to update his certification by taking a review course as defined by the Minor Judiciary Education Board and passing an exam-
RATION, prior to being certified by the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts as qualified to perform his or her duties as required by the Constitution of Pennsylvania. Individuals who have completed the continuing education course every year since being certified are exempt from this provision.

RULE 20. CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENT

Every district justice shall complete a continuing education program each year equivalent to not less than 32 hours per year in such courses or programs as are approved by the Minor Judiciary Education Board. If a district justice fails to meet these continuing education requirements, he or she shall be subject to suspension by the Supreme Court until such time as evidence of compliance with such requirements is submitted by the board, but in no event longer than six months at which time the failure to meet the continuing education requirements shall be grounds for the Supreme Court, after a hearing, to declare a vacancy in that district.

The Minor Judiciary Education Board shall conduct at least one continuing education practicum course, consisting of not less than 32 hours, which each District Justice or Senior District Justice, whether law trained or non law trained, within twelve months of first assuming office, shall be required to attend. The Board shall approve the length of the program, and the course of instruction. Practicum exercises will be a part of the course of instruction. Senior district justices may petition the Board for a waiver of this requirement.

RULE 21. ADMISSION OF SENIOR DISTRICT JUSTICES AND THOSE PERSONS WHO HAVE SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETED THE COURSE OF TRAINING AND INSTRUCTION AND EXAMINATION AND WHO HAVE NOT SERVED AS A DISTRICT JUSTICE, BAIL COMMISSIONER OR JUDGE

Any district justice who has left that Judicial Office for any good reason and who has been certified by the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts as eligible to serve as Senior District Justice shall be admitted to the continuing education program sponsored by the Minor Judiciary Education board every year as required by 42 Pa.C.S.A., Section 3118. Any person successfully completing the course of training and instruction and examination and who has not served as a district justice, bail commissioner or judge may apply to the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts to be enrolled in the continuing education course based on the availability of space. Such enrollment will be at the expense of the party.

In the event that the Court Administrator of Pennsylvania notifies the Minor Judiciary Education Board that a Senior District Justice has not accepted an assignment for a continuous period of two (2) years, the Minor Judiciary Education Board may refuse enrollment in the continuing education course.

RULE 22. CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENT: PHILADELPHIA TRAFFIC COURT

Every Philadelphia Traffic Court judge shall complete a continuing education program each year equivalent to not less than twenty (20) hours per year in such courses or programs as are approved by the Minor Judiciary Education Board. If a Philadelphia Traffic Court judge fails to meet these continuing education requirements he or she shall be subject to suspension until such time as evidence of compliance with such requirements is submitted by the Minor Judiciary Education Board, but in no event for longer than six months at which time the failure to meet the continuing education requirements shall be grounds for removal and the declaration of a vacancy in the Philadelphia Traffic Court.

RULE 81. ACTS OF ASSEMBLY SUSPENDED

All acts of Assembly or parts thereof inconsistent with the Rules Governing Standards of Conduct of District Justices are suspended to the extent of such inconsistency.

Adopted June 1, 1971. Amended April 25, 1979, effective in 30 days; June 30, 1982, effective 30 days after July 17, 1982.
